Illuminating the Path to Success: Islam's Perspective

All Praises and Adorations belong to Allah, the Most High. The One who has nurtured his Creations with His utmost blessings and Unending mercies for His guidance and protection. I pray May we continue to enjoy His divine favour for the rest of our days. Aamin.

Dear Invited guests, Chairman, Board of Directors, Representatives of the Old Students' Association, Staff, Esteemed Parents and my Beloved Students and Pupils.

Assalam Alaykum Warahmatullah Wabarakatuhu.

".....And when it is said, 'Rise up!' then rise up; Allah will raise those who believe among you and those to whom knowledge has been given, to degrees of rank. And Allah is Well-Aware of what you do". Quran 58 verse 12.

Today, as I stand before you, I am filled with a sense of accomplishment and fulfilment for the milestones we have achieved together. It is indeed a day to celebrate our Students' Outstanding and Excellent performances in their various subjects and other aspects of learning.

Graduating from secondary school marks a significant milestone in a student's life, heralding a transition towards adulthood and the pursuit of higher aspirations. From an Islamic perspective, this achievement is not merely a culmination of academic endeavors but also a step towards fulfilling one's purpose in life as a responsible individual and a member of society.

In Islam, seeking knowledge is highly encouraged and considered a lifelong endeavor. The Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) emphasized the importance of education, stating that seeking knowledge is obligatory upon every Muslim. This directive underscores the value Islam places on learning and intellectual growth as a means to better oneself and contribute positively to the community.

Dear graduating students, this period marks the beginning of a journey where you are encouraged to apply the principles of Islam in your daily lives, including your academic and career pursuits. Integrity, perseverance, and humility are virtues taught by Islam that guide individuals along their path to success. These values instill a sense of purpose and direction, ensuring that your achievements are not only measured by material gains but also by your contributions to the welfare of others and adherence to moral principles.

Furthermore, Islam emphasizes the concept of 'Barakah' (divine blessings) in one's efforts. My dear ones, be encouraged to seek success not only through hard work but also by seeking the guidance and blessings of Allah. This belief fosters humility and gratitude, reminding you that your achievements are ultimately gifts from the Divine.

From a practical standpoint, you must all be guided by Islamic principles in order to pursue education that aligns with your interests and strengths, while also benefiting the broader community. Whether it be through pursuing higher education, vocational training, or entrepreneurship, the goal remains to utilize your talents and knowledge for the betterment of society and to seek success in a manner that is ethical and sustainable.

In conclusion, I want you all to know that this is a moment of reflection, gratitude, and determination. It marks the beginning of a journey where all of you must apply the teachings of Islam to your academic and professional pursuits, ensuring that your achievements are not only meaningful but also contribute positively to society. By upholding Islamic values of knowledge, integrity, and service, Allah shall illuminate your path to success and fulfillment, guiding you by faith and purpose as He has promised in the Quran text quoted above.

A very Big Congratulations To You All!

MAY ALLAH FOREVER ILLUMINATE YOUR PATH TO SUCCESS!

FAREWELL SPEECH

by ADEFARATI HASEENAH
OLAOLUWAKITAN

Head Prefect 2023/2024

The Board of Directors, Respected Principal Ma, Vice Principal (Admin/Academics), Other Members of Staff, Esteemed Parents, Adorable Students and my Distinguished Colleagues.

Assalam 'Alaykum wa Rahmatullah wa Barakatuhu.

It is a privilege for me, as the Head Prefect of this great Institution, to stand here and address everyone present today. With joy in my heart, I say a very big welcome to you all.

Today is a very memorable day for us - the SSS 3 Graduands of Year 2024. We have just ended an episode in our lives and are about to start a new phase of life. "Education", they say, "is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world." And I am sure this school has equipped each and every one of us with such education, adequate knowledge and skills required to prepare for the important roles we will have to play in the society, at large.

As I stand here today, I am filled with mixed emotions. On the one hand, I am excited to see all of our hard work and dedication come to fruition as we prepare to bid farewell to our school. On the other hand, I am saddened by the thought of having to leave the friends, teachers and experiences that have shaped us into the individuals we are today.

I look back to when we entered the school in 2018, well most of us and our seniors pitied us because we were to graduate in 2024. But, look at us here, Year 2024 is here! Time flies so fast. Yes.

As we look back on our time in this school, we can all agree that it has been an unforgettable journey. We have made memories that will forever be with us, learned invaluable lessons and grown in ways we never thought possible.

I would like to thank our one and only Class Teacher, our father - Mr. Sheriff Oyewole - who has been with us from day one. He has brought us up in the way he sees fit and in the way he ought to have. He is ever caring, ever supportive. On behalf of my classmates, we wish you a life filled with happiness in health and wealth, amin.

And to our Mathematics Teacher, Mrs. Moshood, we really appreciate you for the knowledge and advice you always give to us and the words of encouragement. We are forever grateful Ma.

As we prepare to leave this school and move on to the next chapters of our lives, it is important to remember the values that have been instilled in us during our time here. We should strive to uphold the principles of integrity, hard work and excellence in all aspects of our lives. We should also remember to be kind, compassionate and empathetic towards others and to use the skills we have acquired here to make a positive impact in the world.

To my fellow Students, I urge you to embrace the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead of us. We may face setbacks and obstacles but with determination and perseverance, we can overcome them. Let us remember that our success is not measured by our grades or accomplishments (even though those are also important) but by the positive impact we make on those around us.

To our Teachers and other staff members, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering support and dedication to our education. You have been the driving force behind our success and we couldn't have done it without you. Thank you all very much. We appreciate all of you and pray that Allah, in His infinite mercies, be there for you at all times, amin.

Finally, I would like to say farewell to this school with a sense of pride and accomplishment. We are leaving as confident, responsible and well rounded individuals, ready to make our mark in the world. InshaAllah.

May Allah continue to guide us and protect us all, amin.

Thank you all and goodbye.

Wassalam 'Alaykum Warahmatu Llah Wabarakatuh.

Adefarati Haseenah

MANAGING OUR EMOTION AS TEACHERS

In all my years of teaching as a teacher, I can say there is nothing as important as managing your students' emotion after subject mastery.

Even when you are ready to teach and you are loaded with the idea, if your learners' interest is not captured, the percentage of success ranges from 0 – 20%, the 20 owing to when you are very good and experienced.

Learning new concept can be challenging for learner, and as teachers we have to pass this knowledge across, under a stipulated time frame (usually 40 minutes and 80 minutes for double periods).

Imagine a scenario where a teacher had been teaching for 30 minutes, at intervals you will ask the students, “do you understand?” and they would say, “YES”. You have asked a sample of the students few questions and they responded well. You neatly copied the note on the board and you are happy you have delivered. At the point of leaving the class, your eyes fell on a student and you decided to ask just the simplest question about the day's topic and he or she said “I did not understand any ma”

Hmmm, that is where the emotion comes in, this is just one of the numerous scenes teachers face on a daily basis. Yet, this is not enough to let out your anger.

As teachers, in all we do, let's remember that learners will never forget how we made them feel. You can discipline them without making them feel worthless; you can correct them without calling them names.

Wickedness and being inconsiderate are not the same as discipline. When you are pushed to let out unguarded words. Please hold it.

How would your student remember you in the future? When your name is mentioned, what comes to their mind?

Being a professional teacher goes beyond pouring out knowledge.

Let's think about this, God bless our hustle

SOCIAL MEDIA IS NOT A THREAT TO NATIONAL SECURITY!!

The assertion that social media is a threat to national security is an over simplification that overlooks the profound benefits and indispensable roles this platform plays in modern society. While there are concerns misuse, the advantages of social media significantly overweighs these drawbacks especially when considering the mechanism in place to mitigate risks.

First and foremost, social media serves as a critical tool for communication and information dissemination during emergencies. Government and emergency agents utilise platforms like Twitter and Facebook to provide real time updates during natural disasters, terrorists attack and other crises. For example, during the 2011 earthquake and tsunami in Japan, social media played crucial role in sharing information, aiding rescue efforts and keeping the people informed.

The capacity to rapidly spread crucial information can save lives and enhance the national security by ensuring that the citizens are well informed and can respond appropriately to threat.

Moreover, social media fosters resilience by building connections and networks among people. These connections are very vital during times of crisis as they facilitate the rapid mobilisation of resources and supports. In the wake of COVID-19 pandemic, social media became a lifeline for communities, connecting volunteers with those in needs and supporting the mental health through virtual interactions. These functions illustrates that social media strengthens social bond thereby contributing to a more cohesive and resilient nation.

In addition to enhancing communication and community's support, social media provide a valuable platform to gather intelligence and counter terrorism efforts. The security agency monitors social media to track terrorists propaganda, gather intelligence and disrupt harmful activities. For instance the U.S department of homeland security(DHS) and other agencies use social media monitoring tools to identify and respond to potential threats, recruitment efforts and cyber threat.

The proactive approach demonstrates that social media can be used as a powerful tool and can be harnessed than being inherently threatening.

In conclusion, while it is important to acknowledge and address the potential risks associated with social media, labelling it as a threat to national security is misguided. The benefits of social media in enhancing communication, fostering community resilience, aiding intelligence efforts, and pointing democratic values are substantial. Rather than viewing social media as a threat, we should focus on leveraging its strengths to mitigate its risks. This balanced approach ensures that we harness the full potential of social media to support and enhance national security.

- When a white man creates a phone and you video chat with ur brother, u call it technology but when ur grandma in the village use mirror to see u in ur house in Lagos, u call it witchcraft. It's about time we value our Nigérian products
- In Africa we don't need cctv cameras, the neighbours are enough. If u think am lying bring ur girlfriend home when ur wife is not around and see
- Everyone has a right to be foolish but some idiots use it stupidly.

UNWRITTEN CHAPTERS

Believe in yourself, embrace your passion and never stop growing.
Take risks, make a difference and hold onto memories while being open to new experiences.
You have the power to achieve greatness and make your dreams a reality.

I want you to say this in your voice:
"Maybe I made a mistake yesterday but yesterday's me is still me.
I am who I am today,with all my faults.
Tomorrow, I might be a tiny bit wiser, and that's me too."

These faults and mistakes are who I am; making up the brightest star in the constellation of my life.
I have come to love myself for who I was, who I am and who I hope to become.
I have many faults and I have many fears,
But I am going to embrace myself as hard as I can, and I'm starting to love myself little by little

Haters

"Haters shall always hate
 But live moves on
 If one tells you
 "I don't see any good in you"
 Stay happy, stay safe
 And say life is difficult for the "Blind".

Let your life move on as your teeth grows, doing the right thing at the right time is a major key to success.

Reading one million books or listening to equal sermons will not change your situation, if you fail to live by the way your teeth grow.

In learning to read the alphabets, you start with "A", the same thing applies to you learning the numbers, you start with "one".

"If you fall, you will rise".
 Don't care what they say in particular because if you care, you gonna "fall". Let your success make the noise.

It is a "lesson" for us that some other person we "regard" as small or useless, may be those who will help or save us. There is nothing in life that does not need "other".

Your dressing is part of your "personality".

Knowledge is an ENDLESS SEA

Knowledge is a sea that's deep and wide
A vast expanse where wisdom resides.
A never-ending tide, forever in store
With every quest, a drop is gained

The more we seek, the more we find.
The depths of knowledge, a boundless mind.
Like a river's flow it winds and turns.
Through the valleys dark and mountains that yearn

It illuminates the path we roam
Guiding us forward to a brighter home
Knowledge is power, a gift divine
A treasure trove, where wisdom is mine.

It sets us free from ignorance's chains and unlocks the doors to endless gains
Fellow student lets all swim in the sea of knowledge
For knowledge is versatile
